Fat Ladies in Spaaaaace: The Contest!

Gather round, folks, we're having a contest!

Fat Ladies in Spaaaaace is now a real book for sale on the internet, and you can buy it if you like! Check this baby out.

Look at all that coloring booky goodness. Don't you want a copy of it? Steve the stegosaurus who lives in my sun room says it's totally aces.

And you know Steve's got good taste. I mean, he's a stegosaurus. Everybody knows they're excellent judges of literature.

Here's your chance to win a free copy. By coloring!

The Contest!

Here are free coloring pages from Fat Ladies in Spaaaaace, along with a coloring-ready version of the cover art. Click for big versions.

Your mission is to color one of these and email your finished masterpiece to me at nicolelorenz@gmail.com. I'll use a random number generator to pick the winner, so everyone has the same odds regardless of artistic ability. (Because one of the awesome things about coloring is it doesn't matter how you do it, just that you're having fun!) I'll post a gallery of the submissions once the contest is over so you can see everyone's lovely work!

One winner will receive:

- A copy of Fat Ladies in Spaaaaace (signed, if you like)
- An original coloring page of yourself or a loved one as a sci-fi character of your choosing (I'll send you the inked page as well as a digital copy for easy printing and coloring)
- A PDF of the interior coloring pages, so you can print them out and color as many copies as you want
- Bragging rights, 'cause dude, you won an internet contest by coloring.

The rules:

1. One entry per person, please! (Kids count. If you send me one page you colored and one your third grader colored, that's a-okay, just mention that in your email.)
2. You can color using any medium you like, traditional or digital, and send me any kind of image of your masterpiece - scanned, photographed, cell phone pic with Blingees, it's all good! All I ask is that you write your name on the page so everybody will know it's yours when it's hanging on the fridge. (Note: Anyone who actually takes a picture of their coloring hanging on their fridge will instantly become my hero.)

3. Email me at nicolelorenz@gmail.com with your entry attached by the end of next Thursday, August 25th. Put SPAAAAACE somewhere in the subject line.

You've got ten days, folks! Show me your coloring prowess.

(Aside to my wonderful models: You're welcome to submit your coloring to add to the gallery, but you're ineligible for the prizes. You've already got original coloring pages of yourselves, free copies of the book earmarked just for you, and my eternal love. Love isn't even on the prize list, you lucky ducks.)
