

Did I mention...AMA-CON!!!

I'm going to be a special guest at AMA-CON in Amarillo, Texas next weekend!

AMA-CON is an anime, comic, gaming, steampunk, and pop culture convention with a ton of amazing guests and vendors, and because it's run by the Amarillo Public Library system, the profits go toward reading, ESL, and literacy programs!

I'll be signing books, selling some art, and, oh yeah, running a workshop on making your own coloring pages!

AMA-CON will be my first ever convention as a special guest, and I'm thrilled to be a part of it.

If you're in Amarillo July 23-24, stop on by!
